Does the conduct include protected class discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct? (view the Non-Discrimination Policy FAQ)

- Yes/Unsure
- Yes to both questions
- No to both questions

Based on this information, there is no duty to report to OIE under the Non-Discrimination Policy.

1. Does the conduct involve a member of the OSU community?
2. Did the conduct occur within university programs or activities?

- Yes to one question
- No

Was the discriminatory or harassing conduct done by a member of the OSU community?

- Yes
- No

Does the conduct involve what you understand to be a crime (e.g. sexual assault, stalking, dating/domestic violence) or believe to be a safety risk?

- Yes
- No

Is the conduct impacting an individual's ability to work or learn at OSU? (This includes educational activities like student organizations, athletic teams, etc.)

- Yes
- No

You are encouraged to report, but these circumstances do not indicate that you have a duty to report within the Non-Discrimination Policy. You can make a report here.

You have a duty to report. Make a report here.