

Non-Discrimination Notice

The Ohio State University is committed to building and maintaining a diverse community to reflect human diversity and to improve opportunities for all. The university is committed to equal opportunity, affirmative action, and eliminating discrimination and harassment. This commitment is both a moral imperative consistent with an intellectual community that celebrates individual differences and diversity, as well as a matter of law. Ohio State does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, pregnancy, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, academic programs, admission, and employment. See below for inquiries regarding potential discrimination.

Contacts for Discrimination Concerns

The Ohio State University is committed to preventing and responding to all forms of harassment, discrimination and sexual misconduct. The university's Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) was created to coordinate the University's response to all complaints of harassment, discrimination, and sexual misconduct. Any student, faculty, staff, or covered third party subjected to harassment, discrimination, or sexual misconduct, may report the incident to OIE.

Concerns may be reported to OIE via the online reporting form, available at www.equity.osu.edu, or by contacting OIE at:
